over the past century the italian landscape has undergone exceedingly rapid transformations shifting from a mostly rural environment to a decidedly modern world this changing landscape is endowed with a narrative agency that transforms how we understand our surroundings situated at the juncture of italian studies and ecocriticism and following the recent material turn in the environmental humanities elemental narratives outlines an original cultural and environmental map of the bel paese giving equal weight to readings of fiction nonfiction works of visual art and physical sites enrico cesaretti investigates the interconnected stories emerging from both human creativity and the expressive eloquence of global materials such as sulfur petroleum marble steel and asbestos that have helped make and simultaneously unmake today's Italy affecting its socio environmental health in multiple ways embracing the idea of a decentralized agency that is shared among human and nonhuman entities Cesaretti suggests that engaging with these entangled discursive and material texts is a sound and revealing ecocritical practice that promises to generate new knowledge and more participatory affective responses to environmental issues both in Italy and elsewhere ultimately he argues that complementing quantitative data based information with insights from fiction and nonfiction the arts and other humanistic disciplines is both desirable and crucial if we want to modify perceptions and attitudes increase our awareness and understanding and in turn develop more sustainable worldviews in the era of the anthropocene elegantly written and convincingly argued this book will appeal broadly to scholars and students working in the fields of environmental studies comparative literatures ecocriticism environmental history and Italian studies ausgehend von Marx Theorie der entfremdeten Arbeit der Ideologiekritik der Frankfurter Schule Sartres Konzept der mauvaise foi sowie aktuellen Studien fragt Cora Rok nach alten und neuen Formen der Entfremdung in der Arbeitswelt des 21. ideology critique of the frankfurt school sartre s concept of mauvaise foi and more recent alienation theories the present work investigates new and old forms of alienation in the working world of the 21st century which has become a central subject especially in italian contemporary literature cora rok examines selected novels and short stories by christian raimo tommaso pincio nicola lagioia michela murgia andrea bajani sebastiano nata and luca ricci in order to elaborate motifs concepts of characters and techniques with which alienated working conditions and forms of consciousness are literarily represented it is also analyzed if critique of alienation is being practiced in contemporary literature and if the possibilities of overcoming alienation are considered by examining a novel by philipp schönthaler cora rok also takes a look at contemporary german work representations de vriendschap van twee pubermeisjes in een italiaans industriestadje wordt op de proef gesteld als de liefde in hun leven komt in toxic matters monica seger considers two italian environmental disasters an isolated factory explosion in seveso just north of milan in 1976 and the ongoing daily toxic emissions from the ilva steelworks in the apulian city of taranto both have exposed residents to high concentrations of the persistent organic pollutant known as dioxin although different in terms of geography and temporality seveso and taranto are deeply united by this nearly imperceptible substance and by the representational complexities it poses they are also united by creative narrative expressions in literary cinematic and other forms that push back against dominant contexts and representations perpetuated by state and industrial actors seger traces a dialogue between seveso and taranto exploring an interplay between bodies soil industrial emissions and the wealth of dynamic particulate matter that passes in between at the same time she emphasizes the crucial function of narrative expression for making sense of this modern day reality and for shifting existing power dynamics as exposed communities exercise their voices while toxic matters is grounded in italian cases and texts it looks outward to the pressing questions of toxicity embodiment and storytelling faced by communities worldwide a sensually charged novel about two girls growing up fast in a failing industrial town on the coast of Italy Anna and Francesca are on the brink of everything high school adulthood and the edge of ambition in their provincial town it's summer in Piombino Italy and in their skimpy bathing suits flaunting their newly acquired curves the girls suddenly have everyone in their thrall this power opens their imagination to a destiny beyond Piombino the resort town of Elba is just a ferry ride away and yet they've never dared to go maybe the future is waiting for them there or somewhere beyond when their friendship suffers a blow the girls set off on their own only to discover that their budding sexuality takes them further than they expect though not as far as their dreams as their choices take them to a painful crossroads the girls must reconnect if they have any hope of escaping their small town destinies in this poetic prizewinning debut Silvia Avallone captures the lost innocence of a generation harrowing yet ultimately redemptive Swimming to Elba is a story about the power of friendship and the way that family friendship and economics shape our world dopo il successo di Acciaio vincitore del premio Campiello opera prima e finalista al premio Strega il nuovo romanzo di Silvia Avallone Silvia Avallone it marina ha vent'anni e una bellezza assoluta È cresciuta inseguendo l'affetto di suo padre perduto sulla strada dei casinò e delle belle donne e di una madre troppo fragile per questo dalla vita pretende un risarcimento che significa lasciare la valle Cervo andare in città e prendersi la fama il denaro avere il mondo ai suoi piedi un sogno da raggiungere subito e con ostinazione la stessa di Andrea che lavora part time in una biblioteca e vive all'ombra del fratello emigrato in America ma ha un progetto folle e coraggioso in cui nessuno vuole credere neppure suo padre il granitico ex sindaco di Biella per lui la sfida è tornare dove ha cominciato il nonno tanti anni prima risalire la montagna ripartire dalle origini marina e Andrea si attraggono e respingono come magneti bruciano di un amore che vuole essere per sempre marina ha la voce di una dea canta e balla nei centri commerciali trasformandoli in discoteche si muove davanti alle telecamere con destrezza animale andrea sceglie invece di lavorare con le mani di vivere secondo i ritmi antichi delle stagioni loro due insieme sono la scintilla se con acciaio silvia avallone aveva anticipato la fine di un benessere che credevamo inesauribile con questo romanzo ci dice che il destino non è già segnato e la vera rivoluzione sta nel rimanere nel riappropriarci della nostra terra pezzo per pezzo senza mai arretrare perché anche se scalzi furiosi e affamati è certo che ce la faremo le regole del gioco sono cambiate quando i padri hanno divorato il futuro dei figli da oggi siamo tutti figli siamo tutti luci al neon e campi da arare siamo tutti marina bellezza
